

The Tomorrow Fund's Giving Tree Project partners with Fannie Battle Day Home for Children to provide warm clothes and gifts for kids in low income families during the holiday season.

Fannie Battle's mission is to provide affordable, high-quality child care for at-risk children in a nurturing environment while empowering families to reach their potential.

To sponsor a child from Fannie Battle:

1. Sign up by emailing Caitlin Robbins (caitlinlewisrobbins@gmail.com) by December 1, and she will send you your child's specific wish list and photo.
2. Go shopping! Please spend around $100 total on gifts. Try to buy the items that are truly needed first, such as clothes, winter coats or pajamas. This year we will be providing the children's parents with gift wrapping materials to wrap their own child's gifts - so we're asking participants to spend an additional $10 on gift bags and boxes for your gifts. (The Tomorrow Fund will provide rolls of wrapping paper).
3. Place UNWRAPPED gifts and wrapping supplies in a bag or box with the child's name securely attached.
4. Drop off gifts weekdays between December 2 - December 15, 9AM – 4PM at:
The Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee
3833 Cleghorn Avenue, Suite 400
Nashville, TN 37215
615-321-4939

After-hours drop off or pick up is available by contacting CFMT at 615-321-4939.
